Based in Ireland

Biography

Mano Le Tough is an Irish DJ, producer, and label founder known for his melodic, deep, folkal house music and a storied history of acclaimed releases and collaborations / remixes for the likes of DJ Koze / Pampa Records, Circo Loco, Róisín Murphy, Fabric plus via his own imprint Maeve. As a DJ, his sound blends emotional depth with rhythmic intricacy, making him a favorite in clubs (Berghain, Circoloco, Fabric, Robert Johnson) and festivals worldwide (Sonar, Dekmantel, Pitch, Coachella).

His new label Passion Beat is a new platform for expression and collaboration. Big trip believing. An underlying rhythm that spells out love. Love for the music, the togetherness, for the journey we call life. It started out as a street corner conversation between two friends one summer in Berlin, became a global party series and now later, resurrected and reconstituted, a label.
