sim0ne

In the last two years, sim0ne has gone from bedroom DJ/Producer to BBC Radio 1's Future Star of 2024 and star of TikTok's #ElectronicMusic campaign.

The Edinburgh-born, London-based DJ and producer has gained an increasing global fanbase (including 2 tours of Australia and a debut Asia run) through a series of viral remixes including "Say Yes To Heaven", a bootleg turned official remix that garnered so much attention that Lana Del Rey officially released the single with sim0ne's being the only remix.

Her high-energy blends include hard house and happy hardcore and have landed her a viral Boiler Room, guest shows across the BBC, a special stream with Mixmag and seen her dominate the DJ circuit. Having performed at some of the world's most iconic venues and festivals including Glastonbury, Reading + Leeds, Fabric and DC10 Ibiza, sim0ne has also completed 2 sold out tours of her own show: club zer0.
