Bio:

Daykoda is the musical project of Milan-based producer and musician Andrea Gamba, who explores the connections between electronic music and experimental jazz.

Over the years, Daykoda has developed a unique style, refined through time and inspired by visionary labels such as Brainfeeder and Ninja Tune.

His discography includes three impactful albums: All of Me (2019), PHYSIS (2021), and UNO (2023), the latter released on La Tempesta. Daykoda has brought his music to numerous prominent stages, including a notable performance at Circolo Magnolia, where he opened for Thundercat in 2022, and at the VIVA! Festival, sharing the lineup with artists like Alfa Mist, Kokoroko, Moderat, and Gilles Peterson. Other prestigious festivals include Novara Jazz, Spring Attitude, and Jazz Re:Found.

The year 2023 marked a significant milestone in his career. He embarked on a European tour with a quartet, performing at key jazz festivals such as Balkan Jazz in Tirana, Jazz Is Dead in Turin, the Jazz & Blues Festival in Edinburgh, and Jazz in the Park in Cluj, Romania. In October 2023, Daykoda released his third album, UNO, through La Tempesta, followed by an Italian tour in early 2024, featuring a standout performance at the Torino Jazz Festival.

His work has garnered widespread acclaim both nationally and internationally, receiving support from prominent figures like Tom Ravenscroft and Mary Anne Hobbs (BBC Radio), Travis Holcombe (KCRW), Raffaele Costantino (Rai Radio 2), Nubya Garcia (NTS Radio), Lefto (Worldwide FM), and Laurent Garnier. The Italian webzine Soundwall provocatively dubbed him “the Italian Flying Lotus,” highlighting the originality and scope of his project.
