

BOYS NOIZE

2025 Dossier
Internal Use Only

German-Iraqi DJ and producer Boys Noize (Alex Ridha) is a singular figure in 21st century electronic music culture: a legend perennially in the vanguard, a cross-genre bridge-builder who remains a favorite of techno purists, and a global headliner who has never turned his back on the underground. He's a focused DJ, an expansive producer, and a master of both, tapped by figures like Lady Gaga, Frank Ocean, Virgil Abloh, A$AP Rocky, Ty Dolla $ign, Abra, Rico Nasty and Arca to bring his subterranean edge and distinctive sonics to productions.

Boys Noize's signature style is an expert and exhilarating synthesis of techno, house and electro with precise arrangements and an inimitable sound best discovered through his solo work. He's remixed Daft Punk, Depeche Mode, Sophie, Sega Bodega, earned a Grammy nomination with Skrillex, and collaborated with Keinemusik, Shygirl, Kelsey Lu, and VTSS.

In 2025, Boys Noize joined Nine Inch Nails on their world Peel It Back tour as an opening and main act performer alongside Trent Reznor and Atticus Ross. With the group, Ridha co-produced the near-entirety of the TRON:Ares soundtrack, earning him two more Grammy nominations, and in 2026 he debuts Nine Inch Noize, his collaboration with Reznor and Ross, live at Coachella.

Despite reaching new heights of success, Boys Noize continues to support the underground through his labels Boysnoize Records and the newly launched ONES and ZEROS, which focuses on rising global talent. Future-proof, Ridha is always one step ahead. Either Boys Noize is quick to follow the future, or it is the future, in fact, that follows Boys Noize.
